Messaggio del Presidente - George Golfieri

Cari Amici,

I would like to start my message with an Italian quote about spring:

"I primi caldi raggi di sole che si riempiono di Speranza che la primavera è arrivata".

The first warm rays of the sun fill one with the hope that spring has arrived.

As we emerge from the pandemic the Foundation is looking forward to reuniting with our members. The Board is planning outdoor events that will allow members to join in and celebrate our Italian heritage. Please watch for more information in this and upcoming Mosaicos.

The Board of Directors elected officers at the March Board meeting whose term will run from 2022 to 2024. Congratulations to George Golfieri (President), Les Villanyi (Vice President), Linda Apel (Treasurer) and Cindy Hume (Secretary). Please visit NBICF.org About Us / Directors, for a short biography of each Board member.

Thanks to member support, the March and April To-Go dinners were a success. I would like to thank the Mangiamo Committee who planned the dinners: Linda Apel, Cindy Hume, Allen Barbieri, Lisa Goe and Al Pucci. A special thanks to all Board members who assisted at the dinners. Mille grazie to Randy Apel for preparing two delicious meals. The next dinner is scheduled for May 28, 2022. Please refer to the enclosed flyer.

I am pleased to announce the recipients of The Sharie Sbrazza NBICF Florence Study Abroad Scholarship for the 2022 spring semester. Congratulations to Mason McAlister, Sophia Serrano, and Jennifer Wiley. This scholarship is awarded each spring to students furthering their education as part of SRJC's study abroad program in Italy. Each recipient receives a $1,000 scholarship. Since its inception, the Foundation has awarded over $124,000 in scholarships for Italian studies at SRJC. Please see page 3 for more information.

There are many reasons to study Italian, often called "il dolce parlar" (the sweet talk) and "la bella lingua" (the beautiful language). Italian is considered one of the most beautiful languages in the world. Therefore, I am happy to announce that the Foundation will once again offer "Italian Summer Camp for Youth" this June. This 2-week camp is a language immersion experience for youths ages 6 to 12 years old. Dr. Joli Love will return as the instructor. Volunteers are needed as counselors for each week. If interested, please contact me at 707-843-3176 or george.zena65@gmail.com. For full details please refer to the flyer in this issue of the Mosaico.

Felice festa della mamma e del papà.

Lar Landa, whose family has deep roots in Northern California, lives in Healdsburg, CA. He attended Columbia University, Universitas di Firenze and Stanford University, where he received a B.A. in art in 1955. Landa has served with the Board of Directors for the California Museum of Art, Luther Burbank Center for the Arts in Santa Rosa, and the Sonoma Arts Council. His paintings and sculpture have been shown in numerous solo and group exhibitions in New York, Philadelphia, Chicago, San Francisco and elsewhere. His work is in private collections worldwide.

In 2006, the Museo Italo Americano featured a major retrospective of Landa's art: "Carnivale / 50 Years." Recently, a large collection of paintings and drawings by Lar Landa was acquired by the Museo Italo Americano for its permanent collection.

The collection is on display at the Museo Annex, 940 Battery Street, San Francisco, CA. For more information, please visit the Museo website at info@sfmuseo.org or call (415) 673-2200.

CELEBRATING 225 YEARS OF "IL TRICOLORE"

The Italian national flag was established on January 7, 1797, when it was chosen in Reggio Emilia to distinguish the Italian troops of Neapolitans army from the French. The flag bears the national colors green, white, and red with the green at the hoist side. The flag became an important symbol of the Italian reunification which culminated on March 17, 1861, with the proclamation of the Kingdom of Italy. The "tricolore oggi" (flag day), dedicated to the Italian flag, and established by law on December 31, 1996, is held every year on January 7th. George Golfieri

Quaresima (Lent) in Italy

Lent corresponds to the forty days Jesus spent fasting. Traditionally, this is a period of restraint and meditation, often accompanied by days of fasting – usually Fridays. This doesn't mean that the period of Lent isn't celebrated in special ways. Traditional foods during Lent consist of food that is considered "poor", meaning it was once accessible to all, such as bread, vegetables, polenta in the North, soups and fish, both fresh and salted, (baccalà, salted and stoccafisso, air dried). There are different recipes in each region. Cappon magro is popular in Liguria, while in Piemonte, lasagne gran magro, is served and the Neapolitans like scammario. Desserts anyone? Genoa is known for its quaresimali, cookies made without fats. Away from the kitchen, rituals and customs continue such as, Irsina or Caremma, depending on the region - both are based on seven items, one item being removed on each Sunday.

Thank you, George Golfieri, for this version of an article from L'Italo Americano.
